

Integrated Pest Management: Conducting Urban Rodent Surveys
DRAFT Table of Contents; Do Not Cite or Quote

Introduction
IPM Basics
Definition and Philosophy
Program Components
Characteristics of Urban Rodent Surveys
Basic Units in the Operational Program
Sample Versus Comprehensive Surveys
Personnel Requirements
Survey Procedures
Sample Survey Methodology
Survey Crews and Equipment
Premises Inspection—Exterior
Premises Inspection—Interior
Instructions for Completing the Block Record Form
Premises Address
Premises Type
Premises Details
Food
Water
Harborage
Entry and Access
Active Signs
Remarks
Interior Inspection(s) Completed
Instructions for Completing the Premises Record Form
Unit or Location
Premises Type
Interior Details
Food
Water
Harborage
Entry and Access
Active Signs
GIS and Mapping
Mapping Criteria and Exterior Tolerance Limits
Mapping Criteria and Interior Tolerance Limits
Selected References

Integrated Pest Management: Conducting Urban Rodent Surveys
DRAFT Table of Contents; Do Not Cite or Quote

Appendix A—Survey Forms

Figure 1. Block Record—Exterior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (blank)

Figure 2. Block Record—Exterior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (completed example)

Figure 3. Summary—Exterior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (blank)

Figure 4. Summary—Exterior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (completed example)

Figure 5. Premesis Record—Interior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (blank)

Figure 6. Premises Record—Interior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (completed example)

Figure 7. Block Record—Exterior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (completed example re building surface orientation)

Figure 8. Block Record—Exterior Sanitation and Rodent Survey (completed example re building-level orientation)

Appendix B—Selecting a Random Sample